

"Four Million Californians Live in Health Professional Shortage Areas."

You Can Make a Difference!

Next SAMET Rotation: February 2005

SAMET Site: UCLA School of Medicine

Course No. ME253.01

Registration Deadline: January 14, 2005

Shortage Area Medical Education & Training Program (SAMET)

Prepares health professional students (medical students/residents, family nurse practitioner students, and physician assistant students) for future practice in health professional shortage areas in California.

SAMET Offers:

- Rewards of providing care to medically underserved communities.
- Opportunities to work with health providers dedicated to equitable and accessible healthcare.
- Clinical training with an emphasis in cultural competency and in a supportive environment.

For UCLA SAMET Rotation Only:

- Application deadline, January 14, 2005
- Register with UCLA
- Open to 3rd and 4th year medical students
- Non-UCLA students must pay a $100 application fee

UCLA SAMET Program:

- Course Chair, David E. Hayes-Bautista, Ph.D.
- Student Coordinator, Virginia Gonzalez-Cornejo, (310) 794-0664 or vgc@ucla.edu

For Program Information: Theresa Harlan at (916) 651-6224 or SAMET@oshpd.ca.gov

Healthcare Workforce and Community Development Division, HWCDD
Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, OSHPD

<http://www.oshpd.ca.gov/HWCDD/professions/samet.htm>

"Equitable Healthcare Accessibility for California"